COLONIAL THEATRE.

"A Warning From the Past," Two Reel Edison Superb Photoplay.

This exquisite treat from the ledger of life tells a story that deals with Anne Trevor whose husband's great love of fox hunting was her only terror. One day just as a big event in the hunting club was about to take place, and her husband about to mount his mettlesome steed, she attempted to note to him begging him to desist, but feeling that she was too timid, she thrusts it into the folds of an old sofa upon which she was sitting. Years afterwards, her granddaughter, after a trying ordeal in which she attempted to keep her husband from making an aeroplane flight upon the same sofa, and while there, sees the vision of her grandmother and her grandfather's terrible death; this she relates to her husband, and it results in saving his life, as the aeroplane dropped four thousand feet to the earth. The balance of the bill shows Blind Man's Buff, drama, Max's Vacation, Marian, the Holy Terror and Doc Yak, Marksmen.

David Theatre.

The cool and aromatic atmosphere of this popular summer home of songs and photo plays, together with the excellence of the normal selection of feature subjects; proves conclusively that the ever alert management is striving in every possible way to maintain the interest of the public by catering to their comfort as well as to their amusement. No lesser celebrity than Malcolm Williams in "The Brute" heads this week's bill and it goes without saying that this fact should be the means of attracting large crowds to witness the final exhibition of the normal play production. The Intruder, a two reel majestic society drama is worthy of its place. "Our Mutual Girl" is always a very interesting and popular feature at this theatre could be complete without one of those laugh creating Keystone comedies.

At the Auditorium.

The management of the Auditorium is certainly putting on some good vaudeville this summer and the people are enjoying it. It has been a very poor act seen at the house for weeks and today the show is exceptionally good. Jack Onri who opens the show is a corking good juggler and a program wins a big hand. Du Bois and Young a mixed team have a neat singing and talking novelty and "Watch the Mule," a comedy skit is a very good one. Leo and Chapman is a scream and includes some expert triple bar work by the male member of the act.

Beautiful, Soft, Fluffy Hair An Aid to Beauty

Who does not love a head of pretty hair? Some women think it is a gift of nature and envy their more fortunate sisters. If your hair is not fluffy, soft and lustrous it is falling out, streaked, faded, brittle, or full of dandruff, and if the scalp itches, do not think it must always be that way. For pretty hair is only a matter of care and proper nourishment of the hair roots. Hair is something like a plant roots. Hair is something like a plant roots. Hair is something like a plant roots.

Parian Sage is a scientific preparation that supplies just the elements needed to invigorate the hair roots and stimulate the hair to grow long, thick, soft and lustrous. It removes dandruff with one application and quickly stops itching head and falling hair. It is the ideal hair tonic and scalp treatment for men, women and children—contains nothing injurious and is delicately perfumed.

The Lee & Osmond Co., or any drug or toilet counter, will supply you with Parian Sage—it is inexpensive. You cannot be disappointed with the delightful and helpful hair tonic for the first few days it will give the hair the beauty and charm of youth.
